

Two Free Public Lectures

First Lecture:

FOR US AND FOR OUR SALVATION: JESUS CHRIST AT THE COUNCIL OF NICEA

The year 2025 marks one of the great milestones of the Christian church. In the year AD 325—exactly 1,700 years ago—a council convened in the city of Nicea under the auspices of the Roman emperor Constantine. The fruit of the Council of Nicea would be the Nicene Creed, which is perhaps the greatest of all Christian confessions. All these centuries later, the Nicene Creed still shapes what God's people know about Jesus—Jesus is truly God! And why is it so important that Jesus is God? Because only God can save us sinners from our sin and death. Jesus, who is God, came down from heaven “for us and for our salvation.” Please join us in commemorating the seventeen-hundredth anniversary of the Nicene Creed and the glorious gospel that Jesus has come to save sinners.

Second Lecture:

MARRIAGE IS HONOURABLE IN ALL

How honourable is the institution of marriage! Ordained by God in the beginning (Gen. 2); celebrated by the psalmist in his Song of Loves (Psalm 45); extolled by the prophets (Isa. 62; Ezek. 16); defended by John the Baptist at the cost of his life (Mark 6); illuminated by Jesus (Matt. 19); taught by the apostles again (Rom. 7) and again (I Cor. 7) and again (Eph. 5) and again (Col. 3) and again (I Pet. 3); witnessed by John in vision of the final consummation (Rev. 19, 21, 22).

But marriage is under attack. By fornication and adultery and unspeakable perversions; by unlawful divorce and unlawful remarriage. And no wonder, for what great things marriage signifies! Marriage is the mystery of Christ and his church. And the bride of Christ, longing to see her husband, says to him, “Come!” How mankind must attack the lovely institution of marriage in his opposition to the true and living God who ordained marriage.

But marriage is honourable in all. From the beginning of the Bible to the end, how honourable is the institution of marriage!

Come join us for a free public lecture on the honourable institution of marriage.
